CINAHL: Advanced Features

Create an EBSCO account	It is useful to create an EBSCO account for advanced searching. EBSCO is the platform to search CINAHL. On the top right side of the page click: “Sign in”. Then look for the “Don't have an account?” link to create one button.
Advanced Search	Use the advanced search function for more complex topics. Click Advanced Search from the CINAHL home page.  Scroll to check off specific limiters including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Peer reviewed articles• Evidence based-practice articles• Journal subset• Publication type• Any author is a nurse Once you have set your limiters, click the yellow Search button.
Search fields	One way to get refined results is to search for keywords in specific fields. From the “Select a Field” drop down, try searching by title (article title) or abstract.

CINAHL Subject Headings

For focused searching, try CINAHL Subject Headings. You can find these two ways.

1. Major/Minor Subjects Headings. If you found a relevant article, go into the article entry, and scroll to find the Major and Minor subject headings. Click any relevant headings to run a search on the subject. Major focused articles will have MM in front of the CINAHL Heading.

2. Search Subject Headings. Above the search box, click CINAHL Subject Headings to search for a term.

Check off the most relevant subject heading. Explode the term if you want all references with the term. Select Major Concept if you only want results where the term is the main focus of the article.

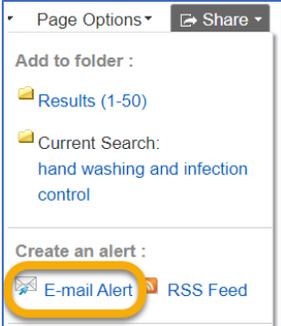

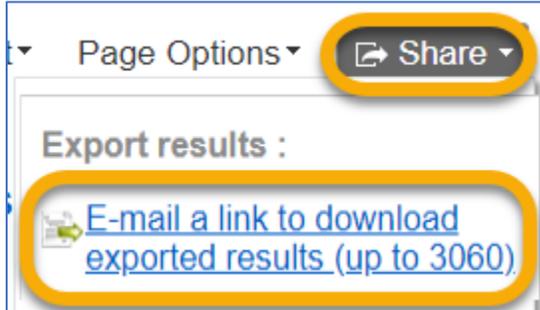

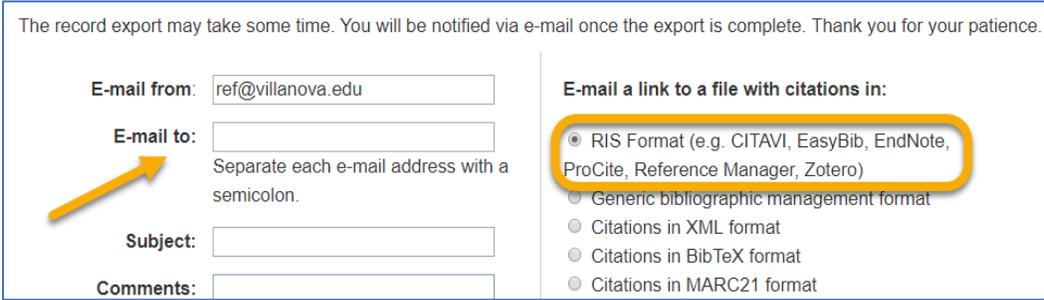

Saving individual results in an EBSCO folder

Hand select articles to save by clicking the blue folder icon. Then add to “My Folder” or create a specific folder for the search. The folder will turn yellow if an article is saved.

Saving search results to EBSCO	Save your search strategy and results two your EBSCO folder two ways: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Click Share then “Results”.2. Or click Share then “Add search to folder.” <ul style="list-style-type: none">• This method will save the search strategy.
Creating a search alert		Get alerts when new articles are indexed in CINAHL related to your search. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Click Share then “E-mail Alert”.
Sending references to Zotero	Zotero users can send CINAHL search results as an RIS file. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• In a search click Share then select “Email a link to download exported results”. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Type in your e-mail address and select RIS Format. A link will be sent to you that will import into Zotero.	  The record export may take some time. You will be notified via e-mail once the export is complete. Thank you for your patience.
