Searching PubMed for BioEthics Articles

Start at the library homepage (http://library.villanova.edu).
Click Databases A-Z.
Choose PubMed.

Try this search:

PubMed > (alzheimer* OR dementia) AND "end of life" AND care

-- The connectors OR, AND must be typed in CAPS.
-- alzheimer* will retrieve Alzheimer, Alzheimer's, and Alzheimer's Disease. Placing an asterisk() at the root of a word will retrieve all forms of the word. Another example: diabet will retrieve diabetes, diabetic, and diabetics.
-- Use parentheses for terms connected by OR: (alzheimer* OR dementia).
-- Use quotation marks for terms composed of more than one word: "end of life".

At your results page, use PubMed filters to focus your results to articles on bioethics published in English.

Click English and Bioethics to activate these filters. You may need to click More under Subjects to display the Bioethics option.
